V.R.KINGAOKAR JJ.

DATED 28.3.2006

P.C.

. These petitions can be conveniently disposed of as they are directed against interlocutory order passed by the industrial court. While passing the impugned order of interim nature certain observations have been made by the tribunal/court. It is needless to mention that these observations were for the purpose of deciding the interim application only. The industrial court is requested to proceed with the matter and decide the same in accordance with law without being influenced by the observations made in the impugned order.

. Petitions accordingly disposed of.
